HELP NAVIGATION RESOURCE

Finding Help in Texas: Where to Start

1 Find Local Help

- Search by ZIP code and type of need.
- Find free or reduced-cost local services.
- Confirm details with the program.

Findhelp.org

2 Find Housing and Utility Help

- Search by city or county.
- Find local housing, utility, and repair programs.
- Contact the listed provider about available help.

TDHCA connects people with local providers and does not take applications directly.

TDHCA Help for Texans

3 Apply for State Benefits

- Apply for Medicaid, CHIP, SNAP, and TANF.
- Check an application or benefit status.
- Manage an existing benefits account.

YourTexasBenefits.com

Need help searching? Call 211 or visit 211Texas.org. Always confirm eligibility, availability, and next steps with the program.

KEY TAKEAWAY: Choose the tool that matches the help you need.

THN
TEXAS HOMELESS NETWORK

Program information may change. THN does not determine eligibility or guarantee assistance.